Do you have any jeans that you don't wear anymore? Do you need to make room in your closet for some new threads? Fancy Pants Thrift store is accepting men's and women's jeans of all sizes. Donations can be dropped off at the Library or Room Q from now until November 17th. Tell your friends!

Photo Club is hosting a Halloween Photo Booth on 18th Street. Capture all the spooky moments forever. They will do both single or group shots. Stop by the booth for pricing information.

If you are interested in playing Girls soccer, there will be a meeting today at lunch in Room H. Tryouts begin on Monday, so anyone interested in trying out needs to attend the meeting. You must be cleared through the AP Office to try out.

Attention Freshmen, there will a Freshmen-only Fall Festival tomorrow at lunch in the Quad. Come for pumpkin decorating, games, and donuts! Again, this is a Freshmen only event so come on out to have some fun!

Anyone wanting to play baseball this spring should report to mandatory conditioning starting on November 6th. Please see Coach Barriga for more information. You must be cleared through the AP Office to participate.

Winter sports will be starting soon. If you are interested in playing a winter sport, stop by the AP Office for clearance information. Don't use class time for this.

Seniors, if you are planning to apply to a California State University, University of California or private university and need help with the application process, help will be available. If you have questions regarding your A-G eligibility email your counselor to schedule a meeting. Counselors will be available in the library from 12:30 - 1:30 PM on November 1st and November 15th. Check your Google classroom for resources to help best prepare for the application process.

If you are interested in trying out for Girls basketball this year, tryouts will be held Monday October 30 from 3:30-6:30. You must be cleared through the AP Office before you can participate and tryout.

Students, please remember that MHS has a dress code. All shirts must have straps and must cover your torso. Clothing must be free of words and logos that depict or promote drug, alcohol or tobacco use. Clothing must also be free of profane or offensive images or words.

Also a reminder that there is no food or drinks allowed in the Library.

Next Tuesday is Halloween. You are welcome to dress up if you choose. Keep these reminders in mind as you plan your costume:

- No masks are ever allowed.
- No weapons of any kind, real or fake are ever allowed.
- Your costume must allow for you to move around safely and cannot impede the learning of others
 - Costumes cannot be offensive or threatening towards others.
- All school dress code rules apply: No drug, alcohol, or tobacco references. Costumes must be free of inappropriate images, sayings or language. Shirts must have straps and be sufficient to provide proper coverage, including your torso
- Bring an extra set of clothes in case your costume is deemed inappropriate
